Home Health Services

Whether you have a medical condition that requires frequent assessment, recovering from an illness or injury, or require rehabilitation to increase your strength or activity intolerance, we have the services to help you.

Skilled Nurses provide education for maintenance of health and prevention of illness. We also provide IV therapy, ostomy care, wound care, catheter care and other skilled nursing services.

Home Health Aides will help you with personal care and provide emotional comfort.

Physical Therapists help you gain strength and coordination to increase ambulation and tolerance to physical activity.

Occupational Therapists teach the use of fine motor skills to regain ability to perform personal care and home-making activities.

Speech and Language Pathologists perform treatment for speech, hearing, and language communication, as well as swallowing and nutritional needs.

Medical Social Workers assist with personal and financial situations, emotional and community support and counseling, and transitioning to new living environments such as a relative's home or assisted living.

Midwest Healthcare Providers, Inc. does not discriminate any person on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability, or age in admission, treatment, or publication in its programs, services, and activities or in employment. For further information about this policy contact:
